

I am of the opinion that my life belongs to the whole community, and as long as I live it is my privilege to do for it whatsoever I can.

I want to be thoroughly used up when I die,
for the harder I work, the more I live.
I rejoice in life for its own sake.

Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of SPLENDID TORCH,
which I have got a hold of for the moment;
and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW (1856-1950)
